Sheriff, Sups Nix Dance Permit

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — No commercial teen-age dance permits for Lemon Grove is the edict of San Diego County Sheriff Joseph O'Conner, and the edict was backed Monday by the County Board of Supervisors.

The board denied the request of Wilber Lee Keller and John Douglas Syson for a permit to run the teen dances at the former Piggly-Wiggly store building at 7846 Broadway. Although the permit was opposed by several Lemon Grove residents, the basic reason for refusal was that the sheriff anticipates that the dances would cause trouble of the type that happened outside the Fayaton bldg. in Lemon Grove about 4½ months ago.

Sheriff's Lt. Robert W. Randall, in charge of the juvenile division, told the board that the department has decided that no more permits for teenage dances would be granted in Lemon Grove. He said that the problem is not with the dance itself but with youngsters from other areas who come to the dances but not to enter and dance but to circulate around outside and in many cases cause trouble.

Randall said that Keller "has done a valiant job of remodelling the building. The dance would undoubtedly be well run and things would go well inside. With continued civil unrest, we felt that we could not take a chance. I would hate to think that some one got hurt because we granted the permit."

Troublemakers Come Here

The officer said that commercial dances are widely advertised and that people come from San Diego to Lemon Grove. He said that most of the trouble has been from youths who live out of the area.

Attorney Earl Smart of Lemon Grove represented the applicants. He said that at first the sheriff's department refused to even give Keller an application to fill out. He said this was done without any investigation and that the situation was prejudged.

Syson, Keller's uncle, told the board that if the permit were granted, about 35 persons would be employed. This included the guards, matron, chaperones, band members and waitresses.

He said that adults deplore many actions of teenagers but

DR. FRANK B. GIGLIOTTI

Gov. Brown Appoints Dr. Frank Gigliotti

Gov. Edmund Brown has appointed a Lemon Grove civic leader to serve on the Governor's Advisory Committee on Children and Youth.

Dr. Frank B. Gigliotti, of Gigliotti Drive, was presented with his certificate by the Commission's executive secretary, Roy Votaw.

In a letter accompanying the certificate the Governor wrote:

Frank B. Gigliotti, D.D.

Dear Frank:

It is a pleasure to send you the enclosed certificate evidencing your membership on the tee on Children and Youth. I am pleased that you have accepted this responsibility and I know you will enjoy the work.

I am asking Mr. Roy Votaw, the Executive Secretary, to contact you with regard to the duties and any other questions you may have.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,
Pat
Edmund G. Brown,
Governor

Dr. Gigliotti's appointment started several months ago after there was a near riot at a public teen-age dance in Lemon Grove. In a series of citizens' meetings that followed, members of the Sheriff's Department reported that Spring Valley and Lemon Grove have the highest juvenile delinquency rates in the county.

Forms Committee

Dr. Gigliotti, under the sponsorship of the Lemon Grove Men's Club, formed a committee of 15 persons to study juvenile problems in the Heartland area.

While talking to Governor Brown about it while seeing him on another matter, Dr. Gigliotti reported that the Governor said, "Wonderful. That fits in with the program we have under way for youth and children. I want you to serve on that committee, Frank.'

The appointment resulted from that contact, he said.

Dr Gigliotti served as chairman of the state Commission on Youth and Adult Probation prior to WW II, he said. The Commission claims responsibility for reducing delinquency throughout the state to "a remarkable degree." As a result of this effort, the commission was called upon to develop an outline of what was to become California Youth Authority under Governor Warren, the

The local study is still continuing, Dr. Gigliotti said.

Hitch Says Bus District Would Add 30¢ to Taxes

Public transportation, a stadium, jobs, and the Bay bridge were discussed Friday by San Diego City Councilman Allen Hitch at the regular meeting of the Lemon Grove Men's Club. He said that passage of the proposed transit bill will add 30 cents for each $100 of property valuation to the bill of every tax payer in the new transit district.

"All areas served by buses will be in the district," he said. He said that he knew of two firms that would make an offer to buy the bus firm and operate it as a private enterprise system.

He warned that many naval officers admit privately that the construction of a bridge to Coronado will result in part of the the naval installation here being moved elsewhere. Such a move would bring a prolonged economic blight to the county, he added.

Stadium Need Cited

A new stadium must be built if San Diego is to keep any sort of major sport activity alive, Hitch explained. "The Chargers football team will leave if a stadium is not provided," he said. A major league baseball team is very likely to come here when an adequate stadium is programmed, Hitch added. "$200,000 in new money would be spent in San Diego for every major event held in the stadium," he said.

Hitch also discussed the job situation in San Diego County and his plan for providing more employment. "We can develop hundreds of jobs by encouraging cosmetics, clothing and book manufacturing industries here. We are attempting this presently through our various industrial development groups," he said.

The Men's Club meets every Friday at noon for a no-host luncheon at Michael's.

Van Deerlin Sends Aide to Peru Over Tuna Fish Hassel

WASHINGTON—Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin (D-S.D.) is pressing efforts this week to guarantee security for San Diego-based and other United States tuna fishermen to operate in Latin American waters.

Monday afternoon the Senate adopted, by a vote of 59 to 24, an amendment to the new aid bill it passed which would take away aid to any nation illegally interfering with American fishing on the high seas.

The San Diego Congressman said: "I will press efforts to have the amendment sustained when the measure goes to the Senate-House conference committee to iron out the differences in the two versions of the new aid bill."

Van Deerlin sent his administrative aide, Siegmund Smith, to Peru last weekend after three U. S. vessels had been haled into the Peruvian port of Chimbote for allegedly fishing with Peru's territorial waters.

The Congressman, labeling the Peruvian actions "official piracy," said he sent his aide, not at government expense, "to help find ways to make Latin waters safe for our fishermen."

Van Deerlin, addressing the House of Representatives Monday, pointed out that Peru is receiving, from the United States: $2.6 million in economic aid; $10.5 million in military aid; $14.7 million in Food for Peace; and a $28.2-million loan from the Export-Import Bank.

Changes Plea to Guilty In Roaring 20's Burglary

SAN DIEGO (CNA)—A Lemon Grove man accused of burglarizing Parkway Bowl's Roaring Twenties Room, 1280 Fletcher Parkway, has changed his plea from innocent to guilty.

James Omer Lemire, 25, of 8061 Alton dr., Lemon Grove, appeared Tuesday before Superior Court Judge Verne O. Warner. Judge Warner set a probation hearing for July 6.

Lemire was arrested in February after El Cajon police confiscated 397 packages of cigarets and 39 bottles of liquor from an auto Lemire had been driving. A short time before Lemire's arrest, liquor and cigaret were stolen from cabinets and vending machines in the Roaring Twenties room, according to Officer Harry Kittrell.

Officer Jerry Marik began questioning Lemire beside his car near Montgomery Ward's metropolitan warehouse, across from the bowling alley about 4 am. Lemire said the cigarets and liquor were left over from a private party at which he tended bar.

Police also found a tire iron and wire cutters in the box of cigarets.

Jehova's Witness Appeals For More Minister Training

Edgar A. Flinn, presiding minister of Jehovah's Witnesses, Spring Valley-La Mesa area, was among the more than 5,000 overseers of the religious group in the United States who appealed to the local group for more ministers to expand their teaching ability.

"More and more ministers are needed to help the growing multitudes who are becoming part of the expanding society of Jehovah's Witnesses," Flinn said. "By all mature ministers aiding the new ones, the organization will have a steadily growing number of ministers that will assist still others. In that way we will be able to maintain a high level of maturity despite the continual influx of new people."

"Ministers, both young and old in age and in their ministerial vocation, will be shown how to apply the 'Word of Truth' to the problems of life. These assemblies have always been a milestone in the growth of Jehovah's Witnesses," Flinn continued, "and we are looking forward to this one to prepare many more ministers to increase their ability to assist others."

REV. H. C. BAKKEN

— HOME —

Summertime is one of the popular seasons for weddings. When two people are united in marriage, they are establishing a home. A home is much more than a house in which to live. God made Eve to be a helper meet for Adam. A man's life is not complete without a good woman by his side with whom he can share all the experiences of life. The two are to be a team in the home and family.

Unusual Banquet a Feature Of Lutheran Convention

MINNEAPOLIS — For every man planning to attend a convention banquet in Columbus, O., Aug. 21, there will be an extra table setting—not for the man's wife, but for a stranger to be brought in from the "highways and byways" of Ohio's capital city.

The unusual banquet, called "the feast of the Lord," will be a featured event at the triennial convention of the American Lutheran Church Brotherhood scheduled for Aug 19-22, on the campus of Capital University, Columbus, Ohio.

Idea for the "feast of the Lord"event is taken from a biblical parable of Jesus in which "the kingdom of heaven" is compared with a wedding feast to which invited guests failed to respond The story then has servants assigned to go into the highways to bring in strangers. It is found in Matt. 22.

Convention delegates will be encouraged to follow the biblical pattern at the Columbus event. The Rev. Herbert Brokering, Minneapolis, pastoral advisor to the ALC's organization of men, will be in charge of the event. Dr. Elton Trueblood, noted author and philosopher of Quaker background, will participate in the program.

Bible School Opens Monday For Casa de Oro Baptists

The Summer School youth program will get under way Sunday evening, June 27, with junior high and high school students having a contest. The subject for the summer months will be "A Christian's Recreation." "Interest" or "Hobbies" will be related to God's Word by the various teams or individuals of each group.

During the Sunday School hour last Sunday, Sunday School Appreciation Day was observed. Each department participated. Awards and recognition were given to various groups, and each group gave a demonstration. June 27 will be promotion day.

The Men's Brotherhood met on Tuesday. The program included food, fellowship, a film, and facts from the Bible. Similar meetings will continue each third Tuesday. Robert Philipps is chairman.

Presbyterians Call Rally to Voice Protest

A Presbyterian Rally is to be held at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Crystal Room of the Grant Hotel, San Diego. The rally is being called because of recent trends in the United Presbyterian Church.

In commenting on the rally the Rev. Edward Kellogg, pastor of the Paradise Hills Orthodox Presbyterian Church, said that United Presbyterians are getting stirred up about the use of the church as a political voice and also the rejection by the church of its historic Presbyterian position.

"In former years," said Reverend Kellogg, "the Church put its effort into preaching and teaching the Bible as the Word of God. More recently the Divine authority of Scripture has been questioned and rejected in many of its theological schools and by many of its ministers.

"At the General Assembly held this May in Columbus, Ohio, a new confession of faith called the Confession of 1967 was approved by an overwhelming majority and sent down to the Presbyterians for their approval. This Confession does not teach that the Bible is the authoritative Word of God. It also omits many of the cardinal doctrines of the Christian faith." he said.

Reverend Kellogg expressed the fear that if the church continued to neglect its task of preaching the Word of God and continued its involvement in socio-economic studies and legislative proposals it will find in time that the Government will restrict its liberties. This would jeopardize the religious liberty we have enjoyed in our country.

The rally is being called to confront Presbyterians with the present crisis in the Church and to consider appropriate courses of action.

The theme will be taken up further in readings from the Christian Science textbook: "The true theory of the universe, including man, is not in material history but is spiritual development . . . . Spiritual evolution alone is worthy of the exercise of divine power" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker, pp. 547,135).

The Dairy Cow Most Efficient Food Machine

Man improved on the bird when he invented the airplane, and the gasoline engine can out-perform the horse. But man has yet to perfect as efficient a "food-making machine" as the cow.

The average California cow, weighing between 1200 and 1500 pounds, eats her weight in hay and grain every month — and produces over eight times her weight in milk every year, according to the Dairy Council of California.

This four-footed miracle of creation has four stomachs. These stomachs are not "spares", but are all part of the complicated digestive process that is necessary to turn grass into milk. This process goes on 24 hours a day and requires upward of 20 gallons of water daily.

The most popular cow or California's dairy farms is the black-and-white Holstein. A native of the Netherlands, where this breed has been known for about 2,000 years, the Holstein is also the largest dairy cow.

Named for Islands

The Guernsey and Jersey cows originated in the Channel Islands near England and got their names from the islands where the breeds were developed. The Guernsey is a golden fawn color with white markings, while the Jersey is usually a fawn or cream color but may be grey or brown with colors frequently approaching black.

The Ayrshire breed originated in southwestern Scotland in the county of Ayr in the latter part of the eighteenth century. The Ayrshire is red, mahogany, or brown with distinctive white markings.

The Brown Swiss cow hails from Switzerland, where the breed has been developed for many centuries. It is probably one of the oldest in existence. The Brown Swiss varies in color from a silver to a dark brown.

These five breeds are constantly being improved by selective breeding and rigid herd management practices. This constantly increasing efficiency is one of the major reasons why milk and other dairy foods carry relatively low price tags.

Transit District Has Power To Tax

The Transit Bill which is presently in the Assembly Ways and Means Committee isn't worrying most San Diegans, but it should.

Because most residents have long ago forsaken buses for the convenience of private autos, many have the secure but erroneous feeling that the Transit Bill will not have an effect on them.

According to City Councilman Alllen Hitch, who was a visitor here last week, a transit district will be formed and every property owner within its boundaries will be liable to a transit district tax. He estimated the tax would amount to 30 cents for each $100 assessed valuation.

We suppose a bus system should be considered as a public utility and that it should be operated for the convenience of the public. But we also think of it more in terms of the telephone company or the gas and electric firm, where each citizen can decide whether or not to use the facility, and pay for it only when he does.

This will not be so if a transit district is formed to operate the buses. Everyone in the district pays in relation to the property he owns whether he rides the bus or not. What's more, the formation of the district will be caused by an approving vote of 50% of the voters.

Hitch said that those who get bus service will be in the district. Those who are not in, won't.

There is nothing new or unusual about the formation of districts. Probably such a district will provide better service than is now given. Perhaps this would lead to more people using buses with users saving more than enough to pay the new tax.

The concern we have regarding the formation of a transit district is that voters may know in advance that a new and rather formidable tax load is probable.

Father's Hand Is Happiness – Mostly

An intriguing study was sponsored by a teacher at Vista La Mesa School. Barbara Brown, the school's fourth-grade teacher, asked students to draw an outline of the hand of one of their parents and to then describe what the hand meant to them.

From such a mundane subject came some wonderful love letters — love letters that could be written only by starry-eyed nine-year old youngsters.

Said Phyllis Vokey: "My father's hand is a wonderful thing to hold when I am afraid . . . (it) makes happiness."

Said Joan Williams: "My father's hand fits mine, and keeps it warm. It has a secret code. He squeezes my hand three times. It means 'I love you'."

Chris Norman had a more masculine point of view: "My father's hand gives me money when I need it. It plays catch with me. It holds my report card."

Craig Bufka: "My father's hand was the hand that used to shoot Germans in WWII."

Kathy Miller: "My father's hand is for almost everything. He sometimes uses it for washing the dishes, washing the car, climbing the antenna, and fixing things. My father's hand is rough and playful. His hands are sometimes clean and sometimes dirty. His hands are useful for many things."

Cheryl Mandrell: "My mother's hand is like a blooming blossom when her fingers are spread apart. Sometimes they look friendly and sometime you better duck. They are able to do the dishes and clean house, too. That's what your mother's hand can do for you."

Mark Fairweather sums it up: "My mother's hand is a weapon to me. It works very hard all through the day. It does all kinds of hard things. It paints, it scrubs, it washes dishes, it washes clothes, and it cleans the rooms.

"Sometimes it is like a spanking machine."

Dance Hall Permit Gets Thumbs Down

what they fail to provide useful activity for the young people. Syson and Keller had planned to use 14 guards at the dances, both inside and in the parking lot.

Syson offered to explain how the operation would be conducted but Randall said that was not necessary. He said that Syson and Keller would run a good operation but that they could not prevent the outside trouble.

Randall said that the commercial dance run in Spring Valley by the Chamber of Commerce was smaller and that it was in an isolated area where the road could be closed off when the capacity of the hall is reached. He said that the further such operations are from San Diego City, the better. Commercial teenage dances are also run in Lakeside and Fallbrook.

School Official Objects

Virgil Duea, vice principal of Mt. Miguel High School, told of dances held at the school. He said there are 30 a year and that other dances are held at other schools and at the La Mesa Recreation Center.

Orville Butcher, pastor of the Skyline Methodist Church, said he was very concerned over the possible granting of the permit. The church, he said, once had a similar problem in running social activities for teenagers 11 years ago. He said youths from all over attended and sometimes caused trouble. Too many who attend commercial dances, he said, have no interest in going inside.

Jimmy Johnson, representing the Kiwanis Club, Frank Armstrong, Lemon Grove lawyer, and Mrs R. J. Collette, of the Mt. Miguel P.T.A., also spoke in opposition to the permit.

Smart said, "Is there anything wrong with someone trying to make a profit? I hope not (Speakers had said that commercial ventures must attract large crowds to make money.) The fact that there is a problem probably means we need more and not fewer teen dances. It just does not seem logical to reject this permit because of something that happened at another location four and a half months ago"

Second District Supervisor Henry A. Boney said he could understand and concur with the desire to make a profit. He said, "Problems did develop, maybe because the operators did too good a job with too much advertising. It appears the sheriff is right."

Keller and Syson do have a license to hold adult dances in the building.

Pay Increases Gained By School Employes

A record budget of $2,065,580 for operating Lemon Grove elementary schools was approved Monday evening but Superintendent Byron Netzley assured the school board that the school tax rate would not be increased.

Part of the increase in the budget was earmarked for salary increases. This amounts to $56,000. Another $20,000 was scheduled for the district's reserve fund, which had been reduced to $86,000 last year.

The current tax rate is $2.76. $2.34 of it is for operating. .42 is for interest and bond retirement.

Teachers will be given increases ranging from $200 to $300 a year. Classified employees get an across-the-board increase of $20 a month.

In other action, L. A. Gagnon Construction Co. was awarded a contract for improvements at three Lemon Grove schools. His bid of $153,350 was low. The work consists of additions to Lemon Grove Junior High and Golden Avenue schools, and handball courts at Palm Junior high.

Smith said there are a hundred petitions out in this area favoring the hospital. He said the petitions must be turned in by today (Thursday) so they can be forwarded to the State Department of Corrections. The Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce strongly favors the hospital in this area.

Smith said that on a recent trip to Sacramento he contacted Sen. Jack Schrade. He said he showed him various letters opposing Schrade's transit bill. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Back in our dim American past there used to be a phrase, "Don't bite the hand that's feeding you." It's a phrase that needs reviving; it applies so aptly to the ingrate nations who accept our aid as they burn our flag; the internal ingrates who use the fruits of liberty to denounce and destroy the tree; and, even, to our local "educators" who "thanked" the School Board for renewing their contracts by presenting a 14-point list of accusations and criticisms against the Board to the public and the press at the first Board meeting after they signed their contracts.

The list of complaints is too vague, childish and petty to need rebuttal, but their method of presentation deserves comment. The Administrators' and Teachers' Associations insist that all personnel problems be handled in executive session, away from the eyes of the public and press; they demand that neither the Board nor any parent be allowed to criticize a teacher or other employee in public meeting, without a prior closed hearing. But they granted no such privilege to the Board; safely protected by tenure, contracts, codes and associations, they hurl their "charges" at the Board without warning in open meeting—with printed copies for the press.

This certainly does little to improve the public's opinion of the once-honorable title of 'educator'. Respect is granted to those who deserve it; disrespect for a certain segment or profession, unfortunately, sometimes fails to exclude the undeserving individuals from the stigma.

It is not the parents and school boards who are injuring the image of educators in this district and the image of La Mesa-Spring Valley District in general. There isn't even a "conflict," except in the minds of a few people who jealously refuse to allow new people and opinions a fair share in the marketplace.

Sincerely,
Neva F. Kindred
8685 Tyler, Spring Valley

Dear Editor:

The end of this school term completes seven years of association with children attending Lemon Grove Schools. A sabbatical leave granted by the Lemon Grove School District Governing Board affords me the opportunity to pursue advanced study during the next school year.

This brief interruption of service is an appropriate time for me to express to you and your newspaper my appreciation for the coverage you have given to San Altos School activities. Your inclusion of meeting announcements, pictures of events taking place, and interpretations of our purposes to the community have been most complimentary to me.

It has been my privilege to live and work in the community served by your newspaper. It will be my pleasure to return after the year of study so as to resume this association.

Principal

Dear Editor:

The entire instrumental music department of Mt. Miguel High School and the members of the Mt. Miguel Music Parent Club join me in extending our sincere thanks and appreciation of your cooperation with us in publicizing our student activities throughout the past school year.

Any recognition of youth work well done makes for good reading and inspires all youth to do better. With the type of students we have in Mt. Miguel Music Department to set the pace for this area youth, we can keep our delinquency rate at a minimum. Thank you very much for your interest and enthusiasm.

Social Security Question Box

By Guy Deeks

If you have any questions send them to the Editor, the Lemon Grove Review, P. O. Box 127, Lemon Grove, Calif. Your question will be answered by personal letter and your name will not appear in this column.

QUESTION:

My husband was in military service from 1940 to 1952. He worked under civil service from 1952 to his death in 1964. I have been told by the Civil Service Commission that they will use his military service in computing their survivor's annuity. My husband never worked under social security. Will I be entitled to any benefits from social security on his record?

ANSWER:

Under these circumstances you will not be entitled to any benefits from social security on your husband's record. Your husband's military service could be credited for social security purposes only if no other Government agency, except the Veterans Administration, used this period of military service in figuring a benefit. Since the Civil Service Commission is using the military service in figuring a benefit, the Social Security Administration cannot also use the same period of military service to determine eligibility.

QUESTION:

My husband and I have two children under 18. My husband works under social security and provides most of the family income. However for the last 15 years I have also worked under social securiy to help with the family expenses. I would like to know what benefits would be payable to my family in the case of my death.

ANSWER:

Since you are working and helping to support your family, social security benefits would be payable to your minor children until they reach 18. Your husband would also be entitled to a lump-sum death benefit. In addition, if you were providing at least one-half of the support for parent at the time of your death, benefits would be payable to the parent at age 62.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS

Dear Friends:

From time to time it is necessary to examine critically our mode of doing business in order to continue functioning to the best advantage of all customers. For some time we have been doing just that and we should like to share with you our findings and our decisions arising from that survey.

The costs of business are high. We want to be sure that these expenditures are returning full value.

Our store is large and beautiful. It is kept clean and comfortable. Our staff is adequate to prevent undue waiting. Our personnel all know their products and are capable of serving effectively. Our people attend schools dealing with retailing as they are offered. Our buyers visit showrooms in Los Angeles several times a year in order to obtain the newest and best merchandise. Our stock is large and varied. We participate fully in all civic activities.

All of these expenses seem to us to be needed for best customer service. There is only one expense which we feel we can eliminate without undue hardship to anyone.

For Many years, we have given S & H green stamps. While we know that many of you appreciate and use them, we also know that they do not return full value to either the store or the customer, because of lost and destroyed stamps and slowly filled books. We have therefore decided to discontinue the giving of stamps as of the first of July.

We hope you will understand and cooperate with us in this decision. We shall in turn promise you continued good service, reputable merchandise, reasonable prices and high standard of retailing.
Thank you all for your support. We shall do our utmost to warrant it.

Sincerely yours,

LA MESA DRUG COMPANY

Arruza Headlines Bullring Program

TIJUANA — Carlos Arruza, Mexico's greatest bullfighter, will make his first appearance in four years here Sunday at the downtown building.

Competing with Arruza will be matadors Abel Flores of Mexico and Antonio (Porteno) Sanchez of Spain.

Arruza will demonstrate the spectacular art of "rejoneo" or bullfighting on horseback. His performance will feature his stable of beautiful mounts, each specially trained for different phases of the spectacle.

For many fans, however, the high point of every Arruza performance occurs when he dismounts to pass the bull with the muleta. Unmistakeably, he still has the same mastery and artistic brilliance before the horns that once made him Numero Uno.

Last Sunday, constant wind and monstrous bulls from Mariano Ramirez ranch kept matadors on the defensive here Sunday at Plaza El Toreo.

Antonio Del Oliver was the day's final victor when he won two ears from a seventh, gift bull. He had earlier left the arena in disgrace when he was unable to kill his second bull.

Agapito (Serranito) Garcia earned the only other ear, while Antonio (El Nayarit) Duarte had to be content with applause.

John Pennel Well; To Compete in Meet

John Pennel has recovered from his serious back injuries and will compete in the National AAU track and field championships, set June 26-27 at Balboa Stadium.

Pennel was the world's first 17-footer and won the James E. Sullivan award, annually given the outstanding amateur athlete in the U. S., for his feat. John held the world record at 17-0 ¾ until it was upped to 17-2 by Fred Hansen at Balboa Stadium last June and then to 17-4.

SD Rec. Dept. Offers Kids Many Activities

Day camp, lessons in swimming, tennis, golf and sailing, dramatics, music, ballet, skin diving, sports, arts and crafts, and aquatic competitions are among activities being offered to youngsters in city-wide programs this summer by the San Diego Recreation Department.

Registration will continue for Torrey Pines Day Camp, swimming and sailing lessons, Camp Cuyamaca, golf lessons at both municipal courses, the San Diego Youth and Junior Youth Symphonies, a Junior Frogmen course at Mission Beach Plunge, and city-wide competitions. San Diego Civic Ballet registration will end next Tuesday. Information on all registrations is available at the Department offices in Balboa Park.

City playgrounds and recreation centers have available hour-by-hour schedules of activities at each area. City-wide programs and schedules are posted at schools and playgrounds.

L.G. Business 'Veteran' Sees Bright Economic Future Here

Confidence in the economic future of Lemon Grove was expressed last week by Leonard E. (Len) Farness, who recently purchased the Brumley Shoe Store business at 7763 Broadway.

"I believe Lemon Grove, businesswise before long will be better than anyone now thinks it will be," he said. "Strategically we're in a terrific spot. Adjacent shopping centers will help us here, rather than hurt us—in fact they are helping to some degree now."

In answer to interview questions he said he felt the things most needed right now are "a positive attitude and aggressiveness."

Len Farness started working at the store ten years ago when it was known as Lane's Shoes and owned by Roy Lane. Two years later Dee Brumley bought the store and he worked three more years under the new ownership. At that time Olin Blount bought the store, and Farness recently bought it from Blount.

Len and wife Mary live at 8136 Roy St. in Lemon Grove. Mrs. Farness does the business bookkeeping, "and our four daughters give us moral support," he said.

Turnbull To Star In 'The Falcons'

Lemon Grove actor Bob Turnbull has just been signed for the lead role in "The Falcons," independent feature being produced and directed by Ken Anderson. Co-starring with Turnbull is Pamela Baird, Cinderella in MGM's "The Wonderful World of the Brothers Grimm."

The picture locations in Seattle, Wash., and Turnbull portrays a college student readying himself for war in Southeast Asia with Miss Baird as his sweetheart.

Turnbull is the son of Dr. Amorita Treganza and Dr. Lloyd Adams, 3415 Imperial Ave. He is a graduate of Helix High Schol and Lemon Grove Junior High. He also attended San Diego City College. His mother was last year's San Diego Woman of the Year.

More Research Urged On the Male Animal

Louis H. Nahum, M.D., writes in Connecticut Medicine: "Even in the absence of formal experimentation, every doctor who gives a drug, prescribes a procedure or diet for his patient is engaged in an experiment for he observes the result, modifies the dose or procedure as needed, each patient being a unique individual, whose responses will vary from every other patient. Not less research but more research is needed on the most important of all animals—man."

Mechanical Violations Have a Time Limit

Drivers cited for mechanical violations do not have until the date of their court appearance to correct the deficiency, California Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden said this week.

"Many persons apparently believe they can operate their vehicles until the date set for court appearance before correcting the defect. The law provides that no person shall operate a vehicle after notice by a traffic officer that the vehicle is in unsafe condition or improperly equipped except as may be required to get to his home or to a garage."

The situation is identical if the driver receives a written mechanical warning. He may operate the vehicle only to get it home or to a garage.

"If the driver continues to operate after receiving a citation or warning, he is liable for further citations because the violation is a continuing one."

Overeating Exerts Heart

Overeating adds to the heart's work. Overeating followed by exertion is asking for trouble, the San Diego County Heart Association warns. Remember, professional athletes eat lightly before they go into action, have their heavy meal afterward.
